In the Dales

Ribblehead

YORKSHIRE DALES
National Park

Public transport

Get on the train in Leeds, Bradford, Shipley, Bingley, Keighley or Skipton and travel all the way to the heart of the Yorkshire Dales – Settle, Ribblehead and beyond!

Walks

- Stroll around Ribblehead. For the audio trail and map, go to www.yorkshiredales.org.uk/short-walks
- Take on the challenge of one or all of our Three Peaks! Download the app from www.yorkshiredales.org.uk/yorkshire-three-peaks/app
- Visit the Salt Lake Quarry Nature Reserve – can you imagine how it used to look when it was a working quarry?
- Ribblehead is home to many wonderful caves that need experienced guides to access them. However there are a number of showcaves for self-guided visits. White Scar Cave on the road to Ingleton is the longest show cave in the UK.

Shops and cafés

Take a picnic, sit on the grass and take in the view. Stop off in Settle and get a cup of tea and cake. There's a range of cafés and restaurants to choose from.

Nature connection activities

- Take in the beautiful scenery. Connect with nature: take a pencil and some card to draw the view.
- Admire the incredible engineering of Ribblehead Viaduct.
- Gaze at the stars, free from light pollution – there are other accessible dark sky discovery sites at Malham, Buckden, Hawes and the Tan Hill Inn.
- When visiting Salt Lake Quarry Nature Reserve see what flowers you can identify.

Before your walk, take a look at our 'Dressing for your day in the Dales' guide.

Countryside Code

If you follow the Countryside Code wherever you go, you'll get the most enjoyment possible and help to protect the countryside now and for future generations.

Respect other people

- Consider the local community and other people enjoying the outdoors
- Leave gates and property as you find them and follow paths.

Protect the natural environment

- Leave no trace of your visit and take your litter home
- Keep dogs under effective control.

Enjoy the outdoors

- Plan ahead and be prepared
- Follow advice and local signs.
