Yorkshire Three Peaks Code of Conduct

THE THREE PEAKS
YORKSHIRE DALES

The Yorkshire Three Peaks is part of the Yorkshire Dales National Park.
Help keep the area special for everyone to enjoy by following the Code of Conduct.

LIMITED PARKING

Keep vehicles to a minimum, use public transport and car share if possible.

Please park considerately. Do not obstruct passing places, clearways, private roads, roadside verges, gateways or pavements.

QUIET PLEASE

Please keep noise to a minimum and respect the peace of other people living and staying in the area.

Limit early morning noise (from people and vehicles) to a minimum and maintain it until you are away from villages.

Do not use bells or claxons to 'ring home' your participants at the end of their challenge.

LEAVE NO TRACE

Take your litter home! Litter places a burden on our small, rural communities and is a blight on the landscape. If you want to help, pick up other people's litter along the way.

Remember, banana skins and orange peel are litter, too – they are unsightly and take years to de-compose.

STAY SAFE

Be prepared! Have the right kit, a good level of fitness, and at least one person in your group who can navigate in difficult conditions. Local mountain rescue teams are all volunteers and should only be called in an emergency.

TOILET TIPS

Don't get caught short! Use publicly accessible toilets where possible. The only public toilets are at Horton-in-Ribblesdale.

If 'nature calls' make sure you 'go' away from streams (30 metres) to avoid harming local water supplies. Be sure to bury your waste in a shallow hole and cover with turf, away from buildings and streams. Take paper and wipes home with you.

GIVE SOMETHING BACK

Support the local community by using local facilities and services – and please come again.
