LEARN, LOVE, EXPLORE

Outdoor learning with the Yorkshire Dales National Park Education team.

Our experienced education team can deliver hands on, outdoor learning in the Yorkshire Dales National Park for all ages. We make learning fun and relevant to learners' education needs.

OUR OFFER INCLUDES:

- Curriculum-based learning experiences, including geography and science fieldwork and navigation skills
- Guided discovery walks
- Student focused team building and well-being sessions
- Teacher training

Our activities are free, and our travel grant may contribute towards your transport costs (subject to eligibility).

WE DESIGN OUR SESSIONS TO:

- Connect young people with nature
- Be the start of a life-long relationship with the natural world
- Bring learning to life
- Develop team work
- Increase health and well-being through nature connectedness
- Help young people make a positive difference to climate change and bio-diversity
